Terms

This partner content agreement consists of the Information Table, these terms, and any attachments (together the "Agreement").

1 Definitions

1.1 All terms in quotation marks in the Information Table are defined terms.

1.2 "Affiliate" means any entity that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, a party during the Usage Period.

1.3 "Confidential Information" means information that one party (or an Affiliate) discloses to the other party under this Agreement, and that is marked as confidential or would normally be considered confidential information under the circumstances. It does not include information that is independently developed by the recipient, is rightfully given to the recipient by a third party without confidentiality obligations, or becomes public through no fault of the recipient.

1.4 "Google Products" means Google and its Affiliates' products and services, including artificial intelligence/machine learning technologies.

1.5 In this Agreement (A) "including" means "including but not limited to" and (B) examples are illustrative only and not the sole examples of a particular concept.

1.6 "Partner Content" means all content made available by Partner to Google under this Agreement using the delivery method(s) in Attachment A (Partner Content and Services), including all content from the Select Authorized Items, and Updates.

1.7 "Select Authorized Items" means the content listed in Attachment C, as may be updated by mutual agreement of the parties (including by email).

1.8 "Update(s)" means Partner's updates, refreshes, corrections, or modifications to Partner Content.

1.9 "Users" means users of Google Products, including users of Google APIs.

2 Partner Content

2.1 Delivery, Access, and Use.

(A) During the Agreement Term, Partner will deliver and give Google access to the Partner Content in accordance with Attachment A (Partner Content and Services); and

Docusign Envelope ID: EB3930B9-35B1-8EB4-83CF-B90C2B6AA067

(B) to the extent a licence is required by applicable law, Partner grants to Google a non-exclusive, worldwide, sub-licensable (as further described in this Subsection) licence during the Usage Period to host, store, copy, reproduce, distribute, publish, perform, display, and otherwise use the Partner Content in connection with Google Products, including to develop and improve them; (2) enhance, modify, adapt, transform, develop, create derivative and/or new works based on and/or derived from Partner Content or any part of it; (3) issue copies of and communicate and otherwise make available to the public Partner Content or any part of it in connection with Google Products; (4) use Partner Content or any part of it in combination with any other content; and (5) extract data from and/or reutilise Partner Content.

Google may sublicence the rights granted in this Section 2.1(B) to its: (1) Affiliates (but only if (a) Google ensures that its Affiliates are subject to the same obligations as Google, and (b) Google is liable for its Affiliates' breach of those obligations); and (2) Users (to the extent necessary to permit them to use Google Products).

2.2 Retention of Rights.

(A) Nothing under this Agreement transfers to either party any ownership rights in the other party's content, products, or services.

(B) Subject to Subsection (A), as between the parties:

(1) Partner retains all rights in Partner Content; and

(2) Google and its Affiliates retain all rights in (a) Google Products; (b) content created by Google or its Affiliates, including models trained on Partner Content; and (c) User-generated content.

2.3 No Other Restrictions. Nothing in this Agreement:

(A) requires Google to use any Partner Content in Google Products;

(B) restricts Google from using content it obtains elsewhere; or

(C) restricts Google from exercising any rights it has at law (including under the U.S. Copyright Act).

2.4 Fees. No payments or other compensation apply to Partner Content unless stated in the Information Table.

2.5 Partner Information Protection Addendum. If the Partner Content includes Personal Information, then the parties will comply with the Partner Information Protection Addendum at: https://business.safety.google/pipa/. "Personal Information" has the meaning given to it in the Partner Information Protection Addendum.

3 Warranties

3.1 By Both Parties. Each party represents and warrants that it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement.

3.2 By Partner. Partner warrants that:

Docusign Envelope ID: EB3930B9-35B1-8EB4-83CF-B90C2B6AA067

(A) it has and will retain all necessary rights to grant the permissions and licences in this Agreement and deliver Partner Content to Google;

(B) at time of delivery:

(1) Partner Content will comply with Attachment A (Partner Content and Services);

(2) the Partner Content will be high quality, fresh and of good latency and coverage, in accordance with good industry practice; and

(3) Partner Content will not contain any third party's Personal Information unless Partner has notified the Google Legal Department in writing;

(C) and it has used and will continue to use reasonable care and skill in creating or collecting the Partner Content; and

(D) Google's use of the Partner Content in accordance with this Agreement will not infringe any moral rights in the Partner Content and, where legally possible, all such rights have been waived.

3.3 Disclaimers. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, and subject to Section 5.3 (Unlimited Liabilities), the parties disclaim all conditions, warranties and other terms not expressly stated in this Agreement.

4 Indemnities

4.1 Obligations. Partner will defend and indemnify Google and Google's Affiliates, directors, officers, employees, contractors, and Users against all liabilities, damages, losses, costs, fees (including legal fees), and expenses relating to any allegation or third-party legal proceeding (including regulatory proceedings) to the extent claiming that use of Partner Content infringes or violates a third party's intellectual property, publicity, or other rights including applicable privacy or data protection rights.

4.2 Exclusions. Section 4.1 (Obligations) will not apply to the extent the underlying allegation arises from Google's breach of this Agreement or from modifications or combinations to Partner Content that were not provided or authorised by Partner.

5 Liability

5.1 Definition. In this Section 5 (Liability), "Liability" means any liability, whether under contract, tort (including negligence), or otherwise and whether or not foreseeable or contemplated by the parties.

5.2 Limited Liabilities. Subject to Section 5.3 (Unlimited Liabilities) and to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law:

(A) neither party will have any Liability arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Partner Content for:

(1) lost revenues, profits, business opportunity, savings, or goodwill;

(2) indirect or consequential losses; and

(B) each party's total aggregate Liability arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Partner Content is limited to the greater of:

(1) EUR 30,000; or

(2) 125% of the Fees (if any) paid and payable by Google to Partner under this Agreement in the 12 months immediately preceding the date on which the Liability arose.

5.3 Unlimited Liabilities. Nothing in this Agreement excludes or limits either party's Liability for:

(A) death or personal injury resulting from its negligence or the negligence of its employees, contractors, or agents;

(B) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;

(C) its payment obligations under this Agreement;

(D) breach of Section 2.5 (Partner Information Protection Addendum);

(E) any implied condition as to title or quiet enjoyment;

(F) its obligations under Section 4 (Indemnities);

(G) breach of Section 6.1 (Confidentiality Obligations); or

(H) matters for which liability cannot be excluded or limited under applicable law.

6 Confidentiality; Publicity

6.1 Confidentiality Obligations. The recipient will not disclose the other party's Confidential Information, except to employees, Affiliates, agents, professional advisors, or third-party contractors ("Delegates") who need to know it and who have a legal obligation to keep it confidential. The recipient will use the other party's Confidential Information only to exercise rights and fulfill obligations under this Agreement while using reasonable care to protect the Confidential Information. The recipient will ensure that its Delegates are also subject to the same non-disclosure and use obligations. The recipient may disclose Confidential Information when required by law after giving reasonable notice to the other party, if permitted by law. This Section (Confidentiality Obligations) does not affect the parties' rights under Section 8.10 (Raising Issues with Public Authorities).

6.2 Publicity. Neither party may make any public statement regarding this Agreement without the other's written approval.

7 Term and Termination

7.1 Agreement Term. This Agreement will start on the Effective Date and continue for the Agreement Term unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Section 7 (Term and Termination).

Docusign Envelope ID: EB3930B9-35B1-8EB4-83CF-B90C2B6AA067

7.2 Termination. A party may terminate this Agreement immediately on written notice if the other party:

(A) is in material breach of this Agreement and fails to cure that breach within 30 days after receiving the other party's written notice identifying the breach; or

(B) is unable to meet its obligations under this Agreement for more than 30 days due to force majeure.

7.3 Effects of Termination. On expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason (contractual or otherwise):

(A) if Partner Content is delivered using a feed, then at Google's request, Partner will provide an empty feed to Google to replace the Partner Content;

(B) if applicable, Partner will stop providing Google with Updates;

(C) if the Usage Period is longe than the Agreement Term, then Section 2 (Partner Content) will survive for the Usage Period;

(D) Sections 3 (Warranties) through 8 (General) of this Agreement will survive; and

(E) Google will have no obligation to undo any improvements to Google Products made during the Usage Period.

8 General

8.1 Notices. All notices must be in English and in writing. Notices of breach or termination must be addressed to the other party's Legal Department. The address for notices to Google's Legal Department is legal-notices@google.com. All other notices must be addressed to the other party's primary contact. Emails are written notices. Notice will be treated as given on receipt, as confirmed by written or electronic records.

8.2 Affiliates, Consultants, and Contractors. Google may use its Affiliates, consultants, and contractors to exercise its rights and fulfill its obligations under this Agreement, and Partner may subcontract its obligations under this Agreement, but only if Google and Partner remain liable for (A) their respective obligations, and (B) their Affiliates', consultants', and contractors' acts and omissions.

8.3 Assignment. Neither party may assign or otherwise transfer any part of this Agreement without the written consent of the other, except to an Affiliate where: (A) the assignee has agreed in writing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement; (B) the assigning party has notified the other party of the assignment; and (C) the assigning party remains liable for obligations under this Agreement if the assignee defaults on them. Any other attempt to assign is void.

8.4 Change of Control. During the Agreement Term, if a party experiences a change of control (for example, through a stock purchase or sale, merger, or other corporate transaction) or sells all or substantially all of its assets: (A) that party will give written notice to the other party within 30 days after the change of control; and (B) the other party may immediately terminate this Agreement any time between the change of control and 30 days after it receives that written notice.

Docusign Envelope ID: EB3930B9-35B1-8EB4-83CF-B90C2B6AA067

8.5 Force Majeure. Neither party will be liable for failure or delay in performance to the extent caused by circumstances beyond its reasonable control.

8.6 No Waiver. A party's delay or omission in exercising any right under this Agreement will not be treated as a waiver of that right.

8.7 Independent Contractors. The parties are independent contractors. This Agreement does not create any agency, partnership, joint venture, or employment relationship, regardless of the parties' colloquial use of words such as "partner" or "partnership" in connection with this Agreement.

8.8 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. There are no third-party beneficiaries under this Agreement unless the Agreement expressly states that there are. The parties can amend, rescind, or terminate this Agreement without any third-party beneficiary's consent.

8.9 Violations of Law. Nothing in this Agreement will require either party to violate any applicable law in order to fulfill a contractual obligation.

8.10 Raising Issues with Public Authorities. Nothing in this Agreement prevents a party from raising issues with any relevant public authority regarding non-compliance with the law. To the extent this Section conflicts with any other part of this Agreement, this Section will govern.

8.11 Signatures. The parties may sign this Agreement using counterparts and electronic copies as originals. The parties may also sign this Agreement electronically if permitted by applicable law.

8.12 Amendments. Any amendment must be in writing, expressly state that it is amending this Agreement, and be signed by both parties.

8.13 Entire Agreement. Subject to Section 5.3(B), this Agreement states all terms agreed between the parties and supersedes all other agreements between the parties relating to its subject matter. In entering into this Agreement, the parties have relied solely on the express statements in this Agreement. Separate agreements between the parties relating to specific products, implementations, or uses of Partner's content remain effective unless terminated or expired in accordance with their terms.

8.14 Severability. If any part of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the rest of the Agreement will remain in effect.

8.15 Conflicting Languages. To the extent any translated version of this Agreement is inconsistent with the English version, the English version will govern.

8.16 Dispute Resolution. Before either party files any formal legal proceeding against the other party or Users arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any related Google Products, that party will notify the other in writing and the parties will use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve the issue in good faith during a 30-day informal dispute resolution period. If the parties are unable to resolve the issue by the end of this period, then either party may file a formal legal proceeding, subject to Section 8.17 (Governing Law).

Google

8.17 Governing Law; Dispute Resolution.

(A) Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by English law.

(B) Settlement. Subject to Section 8.10 (Raising Issues with Public Authorities), the parties will try in good faith to settle any Dispute within 30 days after a party receives the first notice regarding the Dispute in accordance with Section 8.1 (Notices). If the parties are unable to resolve the Dispute within this 30-day period, either party may refer the Dispute to arbitration in accordance with Section 8.17(C) (Arbitration). "Dispute" means any contractual or non-contractual dispute regarding this Agreement, including its formation, validity, subject matter, interpretation, performance, or termination.

(C) Arbitration. The parties will refer all Disputes to final, binding arbitration under the rules of the London Court of International Arbitration in force as of this Agreement's Effective Date. The arbitration will be conducted in English by one arbitrator in London, England, which will be the seat of arbitration.

(D) Confidentiality. The arbitration is Confidential Information (including the arbitration's existence and any oral or written information related to it). However, the parties may disclose to a competent court information necessary to execute any arbitral decision, but only if the confidentiality of those materials is maintained in those judicial proceedings.

Attachment A
Partner Content and Services

1. No Standalone Distribution. When Google exercises the rights granted under Section 2.1(B) of the Agreement, Google will not distribute Partner Content on a standalone basis independent of a Google Product.

2. Required Content.

A. Partner will deliver all content identified in Attachment C (Select Authorized Items), including the complete set of files for the latest revision of the code ("Required Content").

B. The content described in this Attachment A, Section 2 will not include any (1) viruses or malicious code (2) child sexual abuse material (CSAM) or non-consensual intimate imagery (NCII), (3) paid ads or third-party trademarks, (4) content containing violence, sexually explicit content, solicitation, biased or racist content, content with hateful messages, or other similarly sensitive content, (5) personally identifiable information (PII), or (6) passwords and API keys, or (7) content licensed under any restrictive open source regime that imposes specific obligations on licensees or users (each "Excluded Content"), unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing.

C. At Google's reasonable request, Partner will provide Google with a list of Excluded Content (including the number of applicable assets) and a reasonably detailed explanation for the exclusions. Partner will use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize Excluded Content (including the number of applicable assets).

D. Any Partner Content that does not comply with the Content Policy may be rejected by Google and the relevant provisions of Attachment B (Invoicing and Payment Terms) will apply.

3. Delivery of Content Files.

A. Partner will, immediately following the Effective Date, identify a contact who will handle content and metadata delivery.

B. Partner will deliver data in accordance with Google's instructions, which will be: i) to Google's online offer evaluation tool (e.g., the Offer Management Portal) made available by Google to Partner, ii) a Google-provided Google Drive directory, or iii) another method directed by Google. Google will provide details for authentication.

Docusign Envelope ID: EB3930B9-35B1-8EB4-83CF-B90C2B6AA067

C. Partner is responsible for complying with the delivery structure in this Attachment A.

D. Unless otherwise approved in writing by Google, content files must be provided in the format specified by Partner in the Portal (as defined in the Additional Terms entered into by Partner as part of its participation in the Offer Process at https://markets.sandbox.google.com (as updated)).

E. Formats: tar.gz (The preferred format for a compressed single archive of the files that preserves file structure and permissions).

Attachment B
Invoicing and Payment Terms

1. Payment. No fees or other payments apply to this Agreement unless stated in the Information Table. Google will make payments to Partner using a process selected by Google which may include direct payments through invoicing or via a payment partner (including Google Payments) selected by Google ("Payment Partner"). During the Term, on notice to Partner, Google may change the payment process applicable to Partner.

   (A) Direct Payments. Except when subsection (B) applies:

      (1) Invoices. Unless otherwise directed by Google, Partner must submit invoices to Google's online portal in accordance with the portal's instructions. Partner will invoice Google for (a) any initial fee; (b) the first recurring fee (e.g. annual, quarterly, monthly); or (c) first Update fee as stated in the Information Table in accordance with Attachment B, Section 2 (Acceptance and Rejection). Partner will invoice Google for any subsequent recurring fees or Update fees in accordance with the period stated in the Information Table. Google is not required to pay any invoice submitted more than 180 days after the date on which that invoice may first be issued.

      (2) Reductions. Where an amount is payable for a fixed period (for example, quarterly or yearly), but Updates are not provided in accordance with the Information Table, then the amount payable will be reduced on a pro-rata basis, so no amount is payable for any part of the period when Updates were not provided in accordance with the Information Table.

      (3) Payment by Google. Google will pay Partner within 60 days of Google's receipt of a correct and undisputed invoice submitted in accordance with this section.

   (B) Payment Partner. For payments made by a Payment Partner, in order to receive payments, Partner must register with the Payment Partner, and may be subject to the Payment Partner's terms, requirements, and privacy policy. Payment Partner will not be required to pay any fee owed to Partners that do not register and provide a valid method for receiving payment within 180 days of the Effective Date.

2. Acceptance and Rejection. Without limiting Google's rights and remedies:

   (A) Acceptance. For invoicing purposes, Google will be deemed to have accepted a delivery of Partner Content 60 days after the date of delivery unless Google provides written notice of rejection to Partner under Subsection (B) (Rejection).

   (B) Rejection. If Google discovers that Partner has not complied with the requirements of Section 3 (Representations and Warranties) of the Agreement, Google may on discovery reject any affected Partner Content or require it to be modified (whether or not Partner has invoiced Google for Partner Content).

   (C) Modifications. Partner will complete any modifications required by Google under Subsection 2(B) (Rejection) within 30 days of Google's initial request. Upon completion of the modifications, Partner will re-deliver the relevant part of Partner Content to Google and the acceptance procedure in this Section 2 (Acceptance and Rejection) will apply again.

Docusign Envelope ID: EB3930B9-35B1-8EB4-83CF-B90C2B6AA067

3. Taxes.

   (A) Definition. "Tax(es)" means all government-imposed tax obligations (including taxes, duties, and withholdings), except those based on net income, net worth, asset value, property value, or employment.

   (B) Tax Invoicing and Payment. Taxes are included in the Fees. Google will withhold Taxes if legally required.

   (C) Tax Documentation. Partner will timely provide customary tax documentation reasonably requested by Google.

4. Currency and Bank Charges. For any payments that Google agrees to make in a currency other than the currency listed in the Information Table, Google will pay Partner based on the then-current published by Bloomberg. If Partner objects to Bloomberg rates, Google will make payments in the currency specified in the Information Table. All payments under this Agreement will be calculated based on Google's accounting. Under this Agreement, the party receiving payment will be responsible for bank charges assessed by its bank.

5. Suspension. Google's obligation to pay fees will be suspended during any period in which Partner:

   (A) is in breach of the Agreement; or

   (B) is unable to meet its obligations under the Agreement due to force majeure.

6. Refunds. Within 15 days of Google's request, Partner will refund any amounts paid by Google:

   (A) for any Partner Content that Google rejects under Attachment B, Section 2 (Acceptance and Rejection); or

   (B) that are applicable to the remainder of the Agreement Term (calculated on a daily pro-rata basis) if the Agreement is terminated.
